PARIS PEOPLE FIGURE IN AUTO-MOBILE ACCIDENT.

An automobile accident, which came near resulting fatally to one of the victims and caused three others to receive severe bruises, occurred on the Winchester pike near this city, about 11:30 o'clock, Wednesday night.

Miss Carolyn Roseberry, daughter of Mr. John Roseberry, of near Paris, in company with Mr. M. Crommelin, landscape artist at the Xalapa Farm of Mr. Edward Simms, near Paris, were returning in Miss Roseberry's car from Boonesboro, where they had been for a short visit.

When near the farm of Mr. John Woodford, on the Winchester pike, about three miles from Paris, they overtook a car occupied by Mr. Russell Roberts, of the Roberts Garage, Mr. Ussery Wilder, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wilder, of Paris, and Miss Juliet Turner, daughter of Mrs. Edward Turner, of Paris. The car occupied by the latter had been put out of commission by a wet coil, caused by the heavy rains, and Mr. Roberts had been to a nearby telephone to ask his brother to send out another machine to bring them to Paris.

Miss Roseberry and Mr. Crommelin took the young people in their car and started on the homeward trip to Paris. In rounding a sharp curve, Mr. Crommelin, who was driving the Roseberry car, lost control of the big machine, which skidded on the wet surface of the pike, and turned over three times, throwing the occupants out. In a few moments Mr. Eugene Roberts arrived from Paris and brought the injured people in his car to the Massie Memorial Hospital, where Drs. Kenney, Daugherty and Ussery were summoned.

At first it was thought that all the occupants of the car had been seriously injured, but it later developed after an examination at the Hospital that young Wilder had sustained a concussion of the brain and severe bruises about the face and body. Misses Roseberry and Turner had scalp wounds and young Roberts' scalp wounds and his back badly lacerated. At a late hour last night it was stated at the Hospital that young Wilder had regained consciousness and that his physicians had hopes for his recovery. The other injured were removed to their homes. Mr. Crommelin was uninjured.

BOURBON CIRCUIT COURT

After returning five indictments the Grand Jury of the present term of the Bourbon Circuit Court, concluded its labors and adjourned Tuesday. The indictments were for minor offenses. There are no murder trials on the docket, and there will be considerably less criminal work for the Court than ever recorded before.

When Judge Stout convened court Tuesday morning the case of the Commonwealth vs. George Collins, jointly indicted with Julian Throckmorton for stealing tobacco from the American Tobacco Company's warehouse in this city some time ago, was called for trial. Collins pleaded not guilty, and upon the jury hearing the evidence he was acquitted. Throckmorton was brought from the Frankfort Reformatory in charge of a guard, and testified in the case, returning to the institution Tuesday night.

The following cases were disposed of: Effie Cross, having liquor in her possession for the purpose of sale, $100 and fifty days in jail; W. S. Smith, convicted on a charge of grand larceny, and given two years in the Frankfort Reformatory; Jack Scott, nuisance, convicted and fined $20; Elizabeth Detherage, nuisance, same fine.

Wednesday was occupied in the hearing of two small civil suits, which were disposed of in Court. A number of visiting attorneys were in attendance, among them being Mr. George C. Webb, of Lexington.

The time of the Court was occupied yesterday with the case of the administrator of Bobby Burns, vs. the Louisville & Nashville railroad company, in a suit for damages. Burns was an L. & N. engineer, a resident of this city. He met death at Corbin last December while going to an oil house for oil. He had just alighted from his engine, when he was struck and killed by an engine, which it was claimed was coming down the track without headlights or lights of any kind. His administrators sued for $50,000. The case is likely to occupy the attention of the Court for several days.

All the juries, with the exception of the one engaged in the trial of the Burns case, were excused until Saturday.

INTERESTING OIL NOTES

C. L. Bell, president of the Mutual Oil & Refining Company, recently organized in Paris, and which has offices in the Security Trust Building, in Lexington, has just returned from Northern Indiana, where he secured for his company 280 acres of proven oil land in Jay county. The Co-operating Land & Development Company, which is allied with the Mutual, will undertake the development of this property, the Mutual taking a royalty. The Mutual Company is having a rig moved to Knox county, where it will sink a test well at once.

The Co-operating Land & Development Company, of Paris and Lexington, announces its new prospectus published in a prospectus recently published in an elaborate form and illustrating their holdings in Lee and Estill counties. The prospectus gives a general summary of the work already accomplished by the company and states its plans and purposes for the immediate future. The Co-operating is a sister company to the Bourbon Oil & Development Company and the Mutual Oil & Refining Company.

The Central West Petroleum Company, according to an official report, has been organized and capitalized at $250,000. At a recent meeting of the directors the following officers were elected: J. Elmer Boardman, of Paris, president; J. T. Metcalfe, of Carlisle, vice-president and general counsel; C. C. Robbins, of Winchester, secretary and treasurer. This company owns the A. C. Creech and Bush Heirs tracts in Wolfe county, 100 acres on Hell Creek, 45 acres in Estill and some valuable holdings in Stephens county, Texas.

At a recent meeting of the directors, of W. S. Dudley Oil and Gas Company, W. S. Dudley, prominent financier, of Lexington and Carlisle, was elected president; G. P. Morrison, half-owner of the Marion Coal Company, formerly of Knoxville, Tenn., now of Lexington, vice-president and general manager; Richard Godson, attorney, of Midway, secretary and treasurer. These three men, together with C. L. Ryley, of the C. L. Ryley Coal Company, of Lexington, and W. O. Davis, of Versailles, general counsel of the Kentucky River Coal Corporation, compose the board of directors.

Operations in the Eastern Kentucky oil fields are being handicapped by serious labor conditions, according to reports received from there. It is stated that men are leaving the work at wells, going back to the cities, or seeking more congenial employment on farms or in factories. Faulty food, scarcity of healthy drinking water and inadequate living accommodations are said to be the causes of this migration. Several of the larger companies have already drilled water wells to offset these conditions and others, realizing the needs of wholesome water for their employees, are reported to have started drilling.

WANTED TO KNOW.

When a bill for $1,550 for oil used on the streets of Paris was read at a recent meeting of the City Council, by the City Clerk, Councilman John Merringer wanted to know who ordered the oil. Just a few months ago the Council adopted a resolution that no one had authority to contract a bill for the city exceeding the sum of $100 without first being given the authority to do so by the Council's Committee.

Mayor E. B. January assumed authority for the purchase, and was informed by Councilman Merringer that he had exceeded his authority and besides after spreading the oil on the streets it had been covered with crushed rock, which had destroyed its usefulness as a dust preventative. Councilman J. J. Veatch and Catesby Spears also concurred in the opinion expressed by Councilman Merringer. The bill was referred to a committee for investigation.

CHAUTAUQUA DATES.

The week of July 8 has been selected for the engagement of the Chautauqua, which will be put on here by the White & Myers System, of Kansas City, Mo., who have had charge of the preceding engagements.

Chairman J. Will Thomas advises every one to purchase season tickets, which will be placed on sale at a number of places in the city. The program will be published in the local press at an early date.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to extend our heartfelt thanks to all the good friends and neighbors who extended their kind offices to us during the illness and death of our brother and son, Oscar T. Ashcraft.

Especially do we desire to earnestly thank Dr. Wm. Kenney and the nurses of the Massie Memorial Hospital; Mr. George R. Davis and those who sent their beautiful floral designs.

MRS. LUTHER C. ASHCRAFT AND FAMILY.

DESERTED INFANT FOUND ON DOORSTEPS OF PARIS HOME.

Apparently deserted and abandoned by its natural protectors, a lusty-lunged infant of about fourteen days was found on the front porch at the home of Mrs. Carrie Iannia Fisher, on Twelfth street, early Tuesday morning, after its cries had attracted the attention of the occupants of the home, and of the neighbors.

At a late hour Monday night it was said, a machine with lights extinguished and showing no license tag, slowly moved up Twelfth street, and stopped in front of the residence of Mrs. Fisher. A woman carrying a bundle, closely wrapped in a basket, alighted from the car and proceeded silently to the home, where after hurriedly glancing around she placed the basket on the porch and hurriedly re-entered the car and drove away.

The lusty cries of the infant attracted the attention of Mrs. Fisher. Upon investigation she found the basket containing a handsome boy baby, apparently about two weeks old. The infant was swaddled in good clothes, and several suits of ready-made clothes were in the basket. There was nothing to indicate the identity of the infant or its parents, and the clothing bore no marks of any kind to identify it. Attached to the clothes the baby wore was a note reading as follows:

"Dear Friend—If you find you can't keep this baby, please see to it that he gets a good home. He is of good parentage on both sides, and was born in May '31."

Mrs. Fisher took the little stranger in her keeping and administered to his wants. She made every effort to locate the parents, but to no avail. Later in the day the little fellow was turned over to Mrs. Harry Hill, where he remained until yesterday. Early yesterday morning a young woman, giving Richmond as her residence, came to Paris over the Paris-Lexington interurban electric line, and claimed the child. She stated to Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Hill that she had been secretly married about a year ago to a young man in Richmond, and that when the baby was born she took it to the home of her parents, but they refused to let her keep it there. Then she conceived the idea of bringing it to Paris. The child was turned over to her and she returned to Richmond on the next car.

NOTED ATTRACTION AT THE PARIS GRAND TO-DAY.

"Woman," Maurice Tourneur's long-heralded and long-awaited film, which has proven so successful in all the cities it has appeared, is to give its first showing at the Grand Theatre to-day.

It is an episodic play, in five epochs with a prologue and epilogue. The philosopher and his wife quarrel. Left alone he reviews the women of the past. From Eve to the present day woman, each type and period are discussed in this film. Just what Tourneur's idea and moral are in the picture is a question which will be widely talked of. We leave it to the readers to view it for themselves.

But the production is gorgeous, tremendously well done and tremendously impressive. The Garden of Eden scenes are played by Ethel Hallor as Eve, and Henry West as Adam. The scenes in Rome in the day of Claudius are done with a historic detail and richness of coloring that is unusual. Flora Revelles, as Messalina, reaches real tragic heights in the part, while Paul Clerget is an unusually impressive Claudius. The scenes at the banquet are truly bacchanalian.

The legend of Brittany is neatly done with a fairy touch that fairly sparkles, while the Civil War episode, a bare incident, has a tragedy note that is impressive by its brevity.

"Woman" is a truly big picture and should be viewed by every one who admires the artistic.

"Woman" will be shown again tomorrow.

HAS NARROW ESCAPE

While working underneath an automobile at the Bourbon Garage & Supply Co.'s repair shop on Main street Tuesday, James Delaney, one of their expert mechanics, had a narrow escape from being crushed to death. One of the jacks holding the machine slipped, causing the car to tip over, pinioning him underneath. His calls for help brought other members of the working forces to his rescue, and the big machine was righted and Delaney rescued from his perilous position. He was considerably bruised, and would have been badly hurt had the full weight of the machine fallen on him.

"WELCOME TO OUR MIDST."

Mr. Edward ("Dickey") Doyle, a former resident of Paris, who has been residing in Lexington and Frankfort for some time, will return to Paris to reside next week.

Mr. Doyle will open a soft drink and lunch stand in the Coughlin building, on Main street, between Seventh and Eighth streets.

RETAIL CLOTHIERS CLOSE SESSIONS AT LEXINGTON.

The annual meeting of the Kentucky Retail Clothiers' Association, in which several Paris merchants are officers, came to a close at Lexington, Wednesday night with the election of officers and the presentation of a program of social features of unusual interest. This was the seventh annual session of the Association, and was fully up to the expectations of all who attended.

The convention was called to order by I. L. Price, of Paris, vice-president, but after the president's address had been read, he called Col. Fred Levy, of Louisville, to preside over the sessions. The minutes of the last annual convention were read by Withers Davis, of Paris, secretary, and committees on nominations and resolutions were appointed before noon adjournment.

The retail clothiers of Central Kentucky were hosts at luncheon, and the afternoon sessions commenced at 2 o'clock with a report of work accomplished by the war board, by Col. Levy.

"Some Hints on Clothing Buying" was the subject of an address by F. M. Bossard, of Cincinnati, after which C. E. Brush, also of Cincinnati, spoke on "Standardizing Prices on Boys' Clothing." Two discussions followed before adjournment for the afternoon. The subjects are "Up-to-date Methods for Mark Up and Mark Down," and "The Outlook for Fall and Winter."

At the conclusion of the business session the delegates and their invited guests were taken to Shakerstown on a motor trip, where they spent several delightful hours in the cool shade, and partook of a luncheon.

At the final session held Wednesday the Association selected Dawson Springs as the place of meeting for the eighth annual session, next June, and elected the following officers: Ellis Malone, Franklin, president; W. C. Fisher, Lexington, vice president; Withers Davis, Paris, second vice president; L. G. Boone, Elkton, secretary; A. L. Harbison, Shelbyville, treasurer; Julius Helburn, Eminence, national representative.

The body was welcomed in an address by Commissioner Wood G. Dunlap. He greeted them as "millionaires" and said that everybody in Lexington, except oil magnates, plumbers and local retail clothiers—also of the millionaire class—would envy them, however warm their hospitality. Mr. Dunlap painted a pathetic picture of Mr. Average Citizen, "with only a few more shopping days till drouth."

$40,000 MORE FOR ALEXANDER BANK DEPOSITORS.

Attorney John J. Williams, of Paris, of counsel for the State Banking Commissioner of Kentucky in the settlement of the affairs of the defunct George Alexander & Company's State Bank, has a letter from E. E. Dilly, Clerk of the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of Ohio, notifying him of a decision made by Judge Hollister of that court, which will be of benefit to the depositors of the Alexander Bank.

A few months after the failure of the Alexander bank, suit was filed by Thomas J. Smith, State Banking Commissioner, and Buckner Woodford, Deputy Banking Commissioner, against the Fifty-third National Bank of Cincinnati, to recover about $40,000, which they claimed the Fifty-third bank was unlawfully holding, it representing a sum loaned to Alexander above the legal limit of $10,000, which, according to its charter, was the limit the bank could borrow.

In 1917, Judge Hollister ruled that the law was with plaintiffs in the case, but at the time he made said ruling both Banking Commissioner Smith and Deputy Commissioner Buckner Woodford, Sr., had been deceased more than a year and their names had not been substituted by the names of their predecessors in office, nor had any motion been made for the substitution of the names within a year after death of the Banking Commissioner and his deputy.

Mr. Maxwell, attorney for the Fifth-Third Bank, contended that it was too late to substitute the names of George E. Speer, present Banking Commissioner, and his deputy, Buckner Woodford, Jr., and said records did not show at that time any one authorized to collect the money from the Fifth-Third Bank, and that the Banking Commissioner would have to lose that amount.

The case was submitted to Judge Hollister several months ago, and he ruled and filed an opinion that the motion of the plaintiffs to substitute the names of Speer and Buckner Woodford, Jr., must be sustained.

The decision means that about $40,000 more will be distributed among the bank's creditors, and if a suit pending in court for $30,000 and those against the directors of the bank result favorably, the depositors will receive very close to one hundred per cent. of their deposits.

ARM BROKEN

While handling an unruly pony at her home near Ewals Cross Roads, on the Cynthiana pike, near Paris, yesterday morning, Mrs. R. C. Biddle was thrown to the ground, sustaining a broken arm. Dr. George L. Rankin, of Shawhan, was called and gave medical assistance.

EDITORIAL MUSINGS.

Why?

It happened last winter in a store in our town—the town we have boasted as being the finest town in the country in which to raise children.

She was a dear, quaint little thing, and had wandered away from her mother to investigate more thoroughly a muff a lady was carrying. One little hand stroke the fur so softly, and the smile on her face deepened, showing a dimple in her cheek. Suddenly the fur was jerked away with a muttered something about "meddlesome kids and careless mothers." The baby didn't understand the meaning of the words, but her feelings had been hurt, and she shrank back, lips quivering, and even mother's arms around her couldn't keep the tears back.

Will You Be Missed?

Some of these days you, who are reading this article, are going to die and pass to your reward—whatever that reward may be.

Will you leave a void behind? Will you be missed?

The Creator has ordained that man must care out his career in this world, and when he journeys to the great unknown he leaves behind a record founded upon his own acts.

You may leave behind you a wife or children, or other dependents. As you deal by them in life, so will their grief be gauged and tempered at your death.

Will they miss you?

In this town you have friends and business associates, and perhaps many acquaintances. They know you as you are, as you have been for these many years. They have judged you living, and they will judge you dead.

Will they miss you?

In our homes are many little children who know you, who have passed on you the streets, who, perchance, may have been greeted with a kindly smile or with a frown. They will remember you.

But will they miss you?

There is no place you may go, no point of the compass to which you may turn, but what people have known you or will know you, and by all of these you will be judged when you have passed away.

Your family, your associates, your acquaintances, even your dumb brutes will remember you after you have passed on.

But will you be missed?

More Than Our Share.

Every town is pestered by the hair-brained chatter of the irresponsible, but it seems to us sometimes that Paris has more than its share of these malicious babblers. Why oh why, will people spend their time in saying unkind and untrue things about their neighbors? Nobody escapes, nobody is immune from these assassins of character.

We know a little group that are very intimate. When they are together you would think the world was all peaches and cream, but when they break up into couples the little hammers are set going and they knock each other like a lot of rival candidates. If Mrs. Brown only knew what Mrs. Smith said about her to Mrs. Jones they would never speak to each other again. Yet, when Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Smith meet they put their arms about each other and play havoc with Mrs. Jones' reputation. And so it goes. Meanness, nastiness, injustice and jealousy, knocked about the neighborhood and the village until one grows sick at the unkindness of human nature.

There is nothing in small town community life that is so odious as gossip. Nothing that creates so much discord, so much misery. Much of this idle talk starts with the run-about with nimble tongue who sets a few surmises on foot that soon meet with falsehood. The thing is spread by jealousy and envy and thus the evil report goes through the town. For years and years this thing has been going on in Paris and people who should have been friends have been separated by these vicious gossips. Once we stood beside the casket containing the clay of a dear, dead woman whom everybody loved. A friend standing near by said: "She was one of Nature's noble women. I never heard her say an unkind word of any one." Would that more of us could have such a tribute.

You Tax Yourself.

We met an old philosopher in the postoffice the other day. One of those rare specimens of advanced age who has mellowed with the years and who, though his hair is white and his face lined with the marks left by the cares of life, still smiles and has a cheerful word upon all occasions. He stood for a few moments listening to a couple of our chronic kickers complaining about the income tax, the war indebtedness, the high cost of living and wondering where folks were to get all the money to meet all the burdens imposed by the war. "Boys," said the smiling old philosopher, "I reckon part of what you said is true. Our taxes will be heavy. But did you ever stop to think that the least of our burdens is the government taxes and that what we got out of the war was worth all it cost us? Our real taxes are the ones we impose upon ourselves. We are taxed heavily by idleness and pride. Trying to keep up with some spendthrift acquaintance or extravagant neighbor is a tax. Then a lot of young people are heavily taxed by folly and dissipation. The money we throw away each year will more than pay the income tax. These taxes cannot be abated by the Government. You got to do it yourself. So far as I can see there is still plenty of work and wages are good. I reckon it will always be as it always has been. The thrifty, industrious fellow will get along and the shiftless, extravagant cuss will be renewing his notes." The chronic growlers just naturally faded away as the old philosopher stopped to open his lock box.

Good Scheme For The Germans.

The report of the Special Committee on Government Ownership and Operation of Public Utilities recently made by a committee of members for the Merchants' Association of New York, contains a lot of refreshing innovations in the arguments against this kind of a program for use in the United States. But that the Germans, with their peculiar "kultur" were fairly successful with "government ownership" and operation, appears to be admitted. The reason, whyfore, are given, and the following is an extract from the report:

"It is true that government operation of public utilities was measurably successful in Germany. But the reason which, under the German system and being given the mentality and traditions of the German people, made it fairly successful in that country, are the reasons why under our form of government, and with the spirit and traditions of the American people, government ownership or operation would be bound to prove a failure and a grave social and economic detriment to the country."

In another part of the report we find this statement: "The financial success of the Prussian railroads is due to high rates, which average about twice those of American railroads, despite the fact that the Prussian roads pay practically no taxes and that American wages are double those of Prussia. Moreover, the operating costs of the Prussian roads are seriously and wastefully swelled in the item of labor costs, by the excessive number of employees; where American railroads employ one hundred men, the Prussians employ approximately one hundred and sixty-six—an excess common everywhere under state operation."

THE TEUTON MIND.

(Montreal Star.)

"In reply to your letter of June 4, 1914." In these words a German firm begins a business communication to a New York firm which in outlook and sentiment seems to crystallize the German mentality. It is unmatchable in its superb blandness and in cold-blooded Teutonic efficiency. "Certain little matters have dislocated the routine of our office system" (one can almost hear the monotonous tones of the first assistant director general) "but explanations are surely unnecessary." Perhaps the chief correspondence clerk exchanged the pen for the bayonet or the head bookkeeper doffed his fustian jacket for the skull and cross-bones tunic of the U-boat private or maybe the chief collector was busy at Louvain, where collections were heavy. But all this is now passed and we must get back to business. "Ach, Hans! How the correspondence has been neglected. Let us at once a beginning make." That there should be any prejudice against him does not penetrate the Teuton mind. The humor of it is magnificent impudence, is lost on the German consciousness. Yesterday a soldier; ah yes! but to-day?

"In reply to your letter of June 6, 1914."

WARNING TO EMPLOYERS OF CHILD LABOR.

Employers of children are warned that a violation of the recently enacted Federal Revenue Act (section 1203-a) entails a fine of 10% of the year's profits of firm or corporation found guilty.

The act forbids the employing of any child under 14 years of age in any mill, cannery, workshop, factory or manufacturing establishment or any child under 16 years of age in a mine or quarry.

It also forbids the employing of children between 14 and 16 years of age for more than 8 hours in any one day, or more than 6 days in any one week.

The Kentucky Child Labor Law (section 331-a Kentucky Statutes) forbids the employing, at any time of the year, of children under 14 years of age in any factory, mill, workshop, mercantile establishment, store, office, printing establishment, bakery, laundry, restaurant, hotel, apartment house, theatre, motion picture establishment, or in the distribution or transmission of merchandise or messages.

It forbids the employing, at any time of the year, of any child between 14 and 16 years of age in any factory, mill, workshop, mercantile establishment, store, office, printing establishment, bakery, laundry, restaurant, hotel, apartment house, theatre, motion picture establishment, or in the distribution or transmission of merchandise or messages, unless said child secures a working permit.

It forbids the employing, at any time of the year, in any of the above occupations of any child for more than 8 hours in any one day; before 7 a. m. or after 6 p. m., in any one day; more than 48 hours in any one week or more than 6 days in any one week.

Unguarded machinery of any dangerous description is a violation of the law and voids insurance on any employee who is under twenty-one years of age. (See sub-section 10, Kentucky Child Labor Law.)

The penalty for violating any section of the Kentucky Child Labor Law entails a fine of from $15 to $50 for the first offense.

A violation of either Federal or State Child Labor Acts not only renders employers liable to fines under both Federal and State Laws, but voids the employers' protective insurance or Workman's Compensation Act in the event of injury to any one thus illegally employed.

RAISING THE DOUGH WITH SALVATION ARMY DOUGHNUTS

The doughnut that made the doughboy happy and was so widely and generously distributed to our boys "over there" by the Salvation Army, has been prominently featured by that organization in the great national drive to raise funds to continue over here their great work in the cause of humanity.

In the great drive in New City, doughnuts were sold by the Salvation Army by the thousands at one dollar apiece. The Royal Baking Powder Company contributed to the Salvation Army a large quantity of their famous product, which not only raised the dough in the doughnuts, but went a long way in helping to "raise the dough" for the fund.

This famous doughnut is shaped like a life preserver and was no doubt regarded as such on many occasions by our men in the battle line beyond the reach of rations. The soldiers have sung its praise so much that the recipe for making four dozen of the kind of doughnuts that helped win the war is given here for the benefit of our readers.

Five cups of flour, two cups of sugar, five teaspoonfuls of Royal Baking Powder, one saltspoonful of salt, two eggs, one and three-quarter cups of milk and one tablespoonful of lard. Knead, shape with a doughnut cutter, drop into very hot lard and in a few minutes—you have it!

RED CROSS PEACE PROJECTS

Factory managers recognize Red Cross first aid classes among their employees as a paying investment of time and interest.

Fourteen hundred Norwegian Red Cross ski-runners served with the French in the Vosges, while in Sweden 33,000 women made surgical dressings and hospital garments.

Because the present supply of public health nurses is too small to supply the demand throughout the country, the Red Cross has appropriated $100,000 for scholarships and $5,000 for loans to assist nurses who want to take post-graduate courses, fitting themselves for this work. The fund is administered by the department of nursing of the American Red Cross.

Don't forget to see Red Cross films when they come to your local theatre. They will show you how the Red Cross is still at work at home and abroad, taking care of people who happen to be suffering through no fault of their own.

To give individual attention to each child who has suffered from the war is one of the greatest tasks of the American Red Cross in Europe. Fortunately, the Red Cross "stands by"—and its most potent instrument is love. To France, Belgium and the Near East clothing and comforts are being sent. In the Archangel district 10,000 children are being served hot, nourishing meals at noon each day.

Rumors that the American Red Cross was to demobilize its organization in France and to leave that country at once has been denied in a statement issued by Lieut.-Colonel George H. Burr, Red Cross commissioner from France, who says:

"For the relief of suffering and destitution existing in various parts of Europe, the American Red Cross is re-adjusting its organization so that the main effort in Europe may well be concentrated in its primary capacity as a relief organization."

HAS REASON TO DOUBT SUCCESS

After-Effects Made Operation's Result Questionable — Trutona

Scores Victory.

LOUISVILLE, KY., June 19.—Valuable words of advice founded upon actual experience, are embodied in the convincing testimonial of Mrs. W. A. Jenkins, well-known Louisville woman residing at 3,121 West Broadway, in which she pays Trutona a glowing tribute.

"A serious operation, performed ten years ago, left me in a very nervous state," Mrs. Jenkins said. "Stomach disorders had become an additional trouble. Intestinal catarrh caused me to be constipated continually. I was always taking a laxative. I frequently experienced severe pains in my back, too. Dizzy spells often attacked me. My nerves were so unstrung that I never got a good night's rest."

"I advise all of my friends and others, suffering as I did, to try Trutona. Since I have taken it, my nerves are much steadier and I'm really able to sleep well at night again. My kidneys are in better shape, too, as the pains in my back have ceased to bother me. And the constipation—well, it is entirely gone. Because of this relief I'm glad to recommend Trutona."

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Paris at G. S. Varden & Son's. (adv)

HOW HIGH DO YOU AIM?

In this age of great attainments in the arts and sciences, in the trades and professions, we hear much said of the duty of "aiming high," meaning thereby to excel in some particular line.

The farmer is urged to develop his soil to the maximum of fertility, the stockman to develop his live stock to the highest point. The manufacturer is not satisfied with an inferior article, but must produce the best. The lawyer aspires to be a leader in his profession, while the doctor would be a final authority on the ills of the flesh.

All this is commendable and as it should be, for it is just such an ambition to excel that has made of these United States the great nation she is to-day.

But there is one "industry" in which, without careful thought, we as a nation are in grave danger of retrogression — of disintegration. This is in the building of character, in the making of good citizens.

Should we not give more attention to the creation of a high grade of manhood, as well as a perfect horse or turnip? Should we not strive to produce men who will raise the standard of citizenship to a higher plane than that to which we, their fathers, have attained?

While it may not be possible for us to scale earth's loftiest mountain peak, yet does that give us license to grovel at the base of the meanest hill?

To reduce a sermon to a few words, we achieve nothing in life that is higher than the goal to which we aspire, for the destiny of each man is controlled by the quality of his own mind.

How high do you aim in life?

SUGGESTION TO SHIPPERS OF HOGS DURING HEATED SEASON

I desire to call your attention to the suggestion from Mr. O. B. Livingston, of Madisonville, Kentucky, as to how he has been able to reduce shrinkage in hogs when shipping during hot weather. He stated: "Three times during the heated term of this summer, in car load lots, I have reduced the shrinkage at least 50 per cent. by the simple expedient of placing in each car with the hogs, three 100-pound cakes of ice, upon the floor of the car at equal intervals. This ice costs 50c per 100 pounds, and $40 to $50 per car can be saved by its use in preventing shrinkage in the weight of hogs."

Try this simple suggestion for what it is worth. It may save you many dollars.

THE MAKING OF A FAMOUS MEDICINE

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Is Prepared For Woman's Use.

A visit to the laboratory where this successful remedy is made impresses even the casual looker-on with the reliability, accuracy, skill and cleanliness which attend the making of this great medicine for women's ills.

Over 350,000 pounds of various herbs are used annually and all have to be gathered at the season of the year when their natural juices and medicinal substances are at their best.

The most successful solvents are used to extract the medicinal properties from these herbs.

Every utensil and tank that comes in contact with the medicine is sterilized and as a final precaution in cleanliness the medicine is pasteurized and sealed in sterile bottles.

It is the wonderful combination of roots and herbs, together with the skill and care used in its preparation which has made this famous medicine so successful in the treatment of female ills.

The letters from women who have been restored to health by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which we are continually publishing attest to its virtue.

PICTURES SOUGHT FOR THE KENTUCKY BUILDING.

Pennants, pictures and exhibits, suitable for wall posting, are wanted by the War Camp Community Service for display in the Kentucky section of the States' Welcome Home building at Newport News, Va., according to information from the Lake Division representative in charge of the States Headquarters at Newport News.

A large Kentucky flag, which was used on the Kentucky building at the St. Louis World's Fair in 1904, and is the property of Secretary C. F. Dunn, of the Lexington Board of Commerce, will be sent with the exhibits. The States' Welcome Home has nine buildings with flags of the States in this district flying from their respective buildings. The buildings are in charge of thirteen regional managers and a warm welcome is given each returning boy in his section of the States' Welcome Home.

The buildings contain reading and writing rooms, where files are kept of home papers, magazines and other literature that give a touch of home to the building.

PRESIDENT TO LEAVE FOR HOME JUNE 24.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—President Wilson hopes to leave Paris for Washington on June 24 or 25, if the Germans sign the peace treaty. Immediately after his arrival in Washington, the President will address Congress. After clearing up pressing official business he will start on his "swing around the circle" early in July. It was said at the White House to-day that the President expected to spend three weeks on his speaking tour, explaining the peace treaty and the League of Nations covenant.

The President has made known a desire that his audiences during his tour be composed largely of opponents of the League of Nations plan, rather than its supporters. He also has informed White House officials that he might discuss the League covenant in public addresses in the course of his visit to Belgium this week. Should he leave Paris a week from to-morrow, the President should arrive in Washington about July 3. He will present the revised draft of the peace treaty to the Senate and will discuss the treaty and League covenant in an address to a joint session of the Senate and House.

WAR RISK INSURANCE BUREAU'S POSTAL SYSTEM

More than a ton of incoming mail each day and nearly as much outgoing mail has made it necessary for the War Risk Insurance Bureau to build up a postal system that is larger than any other of its kind in the United States. Eighty thousand pieces of incoming mail each day are the average for the bureau, of these more than 50,000 being letters. There are over 80,000 outgoing letters each day. Mail is received every half hour, day and night, and a force of employees is at work upon it throughout every twenty-four hours, including Sundays. Most of the employees who first read the letters received are women, the majority being college graduates, highly trained for this expert work in quickly storing the letters, so that they reach the department for which they are intended in the quickest possible time.

The only fellow who would really rather fight than eat is the dyspeptic.

DOCTOR IN A HURRY—HE REALLY FLIES!

(Kansas City Star.) Time was when the doctor made his calls in a buggy. Life sometimes hinged on the speed of the doctor's old gray mare. Then came the motor car and even the remotest of the average physician's patients were within an hour's drive. Now it is the airplane that brings the man of healing to the bedside of the ailing and brings him quickly.

Dr. M. Dummitt, a physician at Webb City, Mo., uses an airplane to make calls when speed is absolutely essential. Dr. Dummitt is an aviation fan and virtually built a machine of his own. He has a hangar for it near Joplin, and Lieut. Webber, formerly of the army aviation service, drives it for the physician.

Recently Dr. Dummitt received a hurry-up call from James Matthews, a farmer living eight miles southeast of Webb City. Hastening to his hangar, the doctor and Lieut. Webber got out the machine and flew to the Matthews home in seven minutes. He alighted in a wheat field near the Matthews home, giving some farmers working in their fields nearby quite a surprise. The doctor spent fifteen minutes treating his patient, collected $15 for his fee and then flew back to his hangar. The entire trip consumed only thirty-one minutes, less than it would have taken the physician of twenty-five years ago to drive out to the patient's home.

The doctor flies frequently for pleasure, but says he intends making a regular practical use of his airplane.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST CARELESS THRASHERMEN.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The Department of Agriculture has started a campaign against the careless thrashermen. It wants only "clean straw ricks" left of the greatest grain crop the nation ever has known, according to a statement made public recently. So the thrashermen will be aided by the government to develop efficiency and avoid loss in separating the wheat from the chaff.

Records of the department reveal startling losses of grain "through avoidable waste of thrashermen." Tests made in "just ordinary" crop years show an average of 25,000,000 to 27,000,000 bushels is thus thrown away. What it will be this year, unless the waste is eliminated, the department believed, would be worth much more than the campaign of education would cost the government.

In Minnesota, where the department made comprehensive tests covering 6,500 thrashing machines last year, it was found that more than 25 per cent. of machines wasted an average of 15 bushels of grain a day each. This loss, according to the figures, was largely through machines being out of repair or through lack of adjustment. Some Minnesota thrashers wasted as much as 50 bushels a day in the thrashing season.

IS LARGEST ELM IN U. S.

(Buffalo News.)

The largest elm tree in the United States is in Rathbone, near Marietta, O., according to tree experts. It is thirty-two feet in circumference and is estimated to be from 500 to 700 years old. The tree has a spread of 165 feet and has five limbs branching out from the main trunk as large as ordinary trees.

Another famous tree in Ohio, a sycamore, was located about one mile below Beverly, on the Muskingum River. Records collected by the department of forestry at the Ohio Experiment Station show that an early French traveler made notes of the tree, because of its amazing size. His record shows that in 1802 the tree was forty-seven feet in circumference and that Gen. George Washington had also made notes concerning the tree in his early travels into what was then known as the West. During the latter part of the Nineteenth century the tree became hollow to such an extent that one could stand inside the cavity and turn an eleven-foot rail around in it. The tree lost many of its branches before it disappeared beneath the waters of the Muskingum during the cave-in of the bank in 1904.

Early records show that many gigantic walnut trees were in the forest around that immense sycamore; many of them were so large that, when lying on the ground, they could be chinned by a man. Much of the early fence between Beverly and Marietta was constructed from walnut rails which were made from these trees.

Speaking of cake, don't you just long for the short kind?

ONLY BOURBON COUNTY BOY CAPTURED BY THE HUNS.

The following account of how Private Martin S. Glenn, of Paris, fell into the hands of the Huns, and how he has probably the distinction of being the only Bourbon county boy, so far as reported, as having been a prisoner of war of the Germans, was furnished to Mrs. Fannie Belle Sutherland, County Historian, and by her sent to THE NEWS for publication, in accordance with the request of the Kentucky Council of Defense:

"Private Martin S. Glenn, of Paris, son of M. J. and Mary Kenney Glenn, was called to the colors on May 29, 1918. After a brief stay at Camp Zachary Taylor he was transferred to Camp Beauregard, in Louisiana, where he made a record for himself. Being every inch a soldier he qualified with men who have been in training a year, and sailed for overseas duty about August 1. Landing in England he was placed with the fighting 32d Division.

"The records of the 32d Division show that Private Martin S. Glenn, of Company K., 127th Infantry, was wounded by a machine gun bullet on October 15, in the battle of the Argonne Woods. Private Glenn's company was attacking at the time. He was in the front line, at the foot of a hill. At the top a German machine gun nest (intrenched) opened fire and killed and wounded all the advanced squads. Subsequently his company was forced to retire from the position to which they had advanced. When Company K again advanced and regained their ground where private Glenn had fallen, no trace of this soldier could be found, and he was carried on the records as 'missing in action.'

"Private Glenn was badly wounded, and his right leg broken. After lying prostrate in the rain for two days and a night, with three bullet wounds, exhausted from loss of blood and hunger, and resigned to death, he was picked up by two Germans on post duty and taken prisoner. They carried him across their shoulders, throwing him to the ground to rest themselves (they were in mud to their knees) causing the broken bone to protrude through the skin. The marks of their cruelty remains to this day.

"When the so-called hospital was reached a gruff-speaking German surgeon began to cut away on Private Glenn's leg, for all the world like a butcher cutting up a piece of beef, using no anesthetic at all, and causing the unfortunate soldier the most excruciating pain and soreness. Then he was transferred to the unspeakable prison, 'Germersheim,' on the Rhine, where he remained for two months, surrounded by filth, disease, starvation, broken hearts and death in various forms. He came out almost a skeleton, and with his wounds infected. After the armistice was signed the French took charge as soon as possible, and he was taken to Dijon, later to Bordeaux, where he remained until April. He is now at Ft. Sheridan, Ill., suffering with a broken and infected leg. Every effort is being made to save his leg and effect a complete cure.

"Private Glenn, battle-scarred and wounded, wears the Red Arrow, the insignia of the world-famous 32d Division, (Les Terribles.) They fought the Prussian Guards, passed through every line the Germans made and never met defeat, and were the first American troops to pass over and put foot on hostile German territory. Only twenty-three of Private Glenn's company survive.

"The artillery supporting this Division used successfully the famous triple barrage, and holds a record that is startling and unique in the history of the world-war. For generations the Red Arrow will be looked upon and venerated as one of the symbols in connection with the world war. Another Bourbon county soldier, Private William M. Casey, of Paris, was a member of the 32d Division."

SIXTY-SIX AUTOS BURN DURING SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT

Sixty-six automobiles belonging to people from all over Ohio and surrounding States, attending the annual commencement at Ohio Wesleyan University, at Delaware, Ohio, were totally destroyed at an estimated loss of $125,000, when a fire in a garage threatened to wipe out the city.

Three houses in the vicinity were damaged by fire and the occupants forced to flee in their night clothes, but the fire was kept under control and confined principally to the garage. With the exception of three, all of the automobiles destroyed were large ones.

Many a man gets the reputation of being a piker simply because he objects to have his money burn a hole in some other fellow's pocket.

IN THE SERVICE OF THEIR COUNTRY.

Lieut. Ogden, just returned from overseas duty in France, was a guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Terrill, in this city. Lieut. Ogden will resume his former position with the Louisville & Nashville.

Robert Scobee Hardman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hardman, of Austertitz, who has been in France for the past twelve months in the aviation branch of the service has returned to his home, having received his final discharge papers.

A message was received here Wednesday by relatives stating that Ernest Jones, of Paris, who volunteered for service in the U. S. Navy at the beginning of the world-war, had been given an honorable discharge, and would return to Paris in a few days.

Dr. Avonia Kiser, who has been in the hospital service as specialist in nervous troubles, is a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kiser, in Paris. Dr. Kiser was enlisted by the Government as specialist in the treatment of cases of shell-shock and other forms of nervous disorders incident to service in the world-war.

Mr. W. F. Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Turner, of Paris, a member of the crew of the U. S. S. "Salem," sent his parents a beautiful electric lamp made from a three-inch German shell. The unique gift weighs thirty-six pounds and is valued at about $100. Mr. Turner expects to be in Paris in a few days to spend his furlough with his parents.

Lieut. Ray Ogden, who before his enlistment in the Signal Corps of the regular army, over a year ago, was an operator in the employ of the Louisville & Nashville, at Paris, has returned from overseas, where he was engaged in field telephone and telegraph work with the Signal Corps of the American Expeditionary Forces. He will resume his old position.

Private Alpheus Moore, better known as "Soup," and well-known to Paris people, is a guest of Paris friends. Private Moore is a resident of Georgetown, where he enlisted in the service. He was gassed and wounded three times in action, but managed to come back alive and able to tell all about it. Private Moore took part in many of the big battles overseas. Despite his physical infirmities, Private Moore is cheerful and happy, and says to be on American soil again is almost compensation for privations and sufferings.

Members of the colored detachment who went from Paris and the county to the country's call to arms are coming home every day. One of the latest to return is Ben Leer, who has been in France about eleven months. Leer was a member of the infantry, and saw considerable active service. He said that when the transport docked at Newport News and the boys touched American soil again, the cheers they sent up ought to have been heard as far as this city. He added that he was surely glad to get back again to the land of "corn bread and fat meat."

Suffering from wounds received in the battle of Soissons, in France a year ago, Sergt. Russell Rankin, of near Ruddles Mills, is a patient in an army hospital in New York City. Sergt. Rankin, who was a member of the Marines, received severe facial injuries, being struck in the face and neck by five bullets from German machine guns. Since reaching New York three months ago he has undergone three surgical operations. One of the patient's shin bones was removed and substituted for a section of his jaw bone, which had been shattered by a bullet. Sergt. Rankin's mother, Mrs. Emma Rankin, and Mrs. Logan Maffett and Mrs. John Fennell, of Cynthia, have gone to New York.

B-4 FIRE Insure with W.O. HINTON & SON, AGTS

$5,000,000 FIRE LOSS AT LIVERPOOL.

A fire broke out on the Alexandra docks in Liverpool, England, Monday night. Warehouses with timber, cotton, oil, four hundred barrels of turpentine and other inflammable material blazed fiercely for hours and are still burning. Several vessels were safely removed from the danger zone, but a blazing roof from one warehouse fell on the American steamship Norinda, which was badly damaged. The crew of the ship escaped. Newspaper dispatches estimate the damage at 1,000,000 pounds.

SAFETY TURNOUTS.

When the path of a speeding automobile is suddenly crossed by a railroad train, the driver generally turns the car to the right into the ditch, the fence, or whatever happens to border the highway at that point. Statistics show more casualties resulting from this natural action than from collision with the train itself. The proposal of a southern road commissioner, calls for a strip of smooth roadway running alongside the railroad at each grade crossing for 100 yards or more. It would join the right side of the highway in a broad curve, banked to prevent overturning.

TO ATTEND INDEPENDENT TELEPHONE ASSOCIATION CONVENTION.

At the United States Independent Telephone Association Convention, to be held in Chicago, June 25-26, Paris will be represented by J. J. Veatch, District Manager of the Central Home Telephone Company.

The "New Era" convention of the United States Independent Telephone Association is to be held at Hotel LaSalle, Chicago, June 24, 25 and 26, and promises to be one of the most important in the history of the Association. Leading telephone men from all over the United States will be there to discuss developments affecting their industry and their mutual problems.

The Central Home Telephone and Telegraph Company will be represented by District Manager J. J. Veatch, of Paris, for Eastern Kentucky; S. M. Heller, General Manager, and Minor Corman, General Superintendent, of Louisville and Western Kentucky. Mr. Veatch leaves Monday night for Chicago.

POOR OLD PARIS WON'T BE IN ON THIS!

Plans for a State-wide observance of Independence Day in Kentucky by the American Legion were announced Hardinsburg, Ky. Judge Moorman Hardinsburg, Ky. Judge Moorman is temporary State Commander of the Legion.

The plan calls for patriotic meetings at each county seat and for the organization of legion posts in towns without charters. Judge Moorman has written to County Clerks, School Superintendents, Sheriffs, Master Commissioners and newspapers in each county asking them to aid in the plan.

Appeals also have been sent to ministers and civic organizations. The comradeship and aid of the G. A. R., Confederate Veterans' Association and the Spanish-American War Veterans is asked for in the appeal.

RELIGIOUS.

—Rev. J. Sprole Lyons, D. D., of Atlanta, Georgia, will preach at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning. Dr. Lyons has the reputation of being one of the ablest divines of the Southern church. It is earnestly desired that he be greeted by a large congregation Sunday.

—The revival meeting which has been in progress at the Paris Baptist church for the past two weeks, conducted by Rev. Dr. Bailey, of Maysville, and the pastor of the Paris church, Rev. R. C. Goldsmith, has closed. A total of twenty-eight additions were made to the congregation during the meeting. Dr. Bailey is an able and eloquent pulpit orator, and his sermons were a powerful factor in promoting the additions to the church.

THE AMERICAN DEAD TO BE BROUGHT BACK FOR BURIAL

Three-fourths of the American dead in France will find their final resting place in American soil. Answering an inquiry from Senator Chamberlain as to the wishes of relatives, General March, chief of staff, said it was estimated that replies from relatives thus far received showed not more than 25 per cent. who expressed a preference that the soldier's body remain permanently in France. With more than four million dead of allied and enemy countries buried in French soil, General March said that the nation was desirous of proceeding slowly with the task of exhuming those that are to be brought to their home lands. No date has yet been set for beginning the return of American dead.

THE MOST DARING INNOVATION IN THE HISTORY OF THE MODERN PHOTO-DRAMA

GRAND Opera House TWO DAYS ONLY TODAY AND SATURDAY

VISUALIZING BAD WOMEN OF ALL AGES AND CLASSES AMIDST THE GLAMOUR OF THEIR SENSUOUS AND TEMPTING BEAUTY

Sensational Engagement of THE MOST STARTLING AND THE MOST TALKED ABOUT SUPER PHOTO-DRAMATIC PRODUCTION OF THE DAY

MAURICE TOURNEUR'S SCREEN MASTERPIECE

A Photodrama of Glorious Splendor, Beauty and Startling Dramatic Thrills. That It Fairly Sweeps An Audience Off It's Feet

Archie Bell Says

In the Cleveland-Leader-News:

"Less than 10 years ago when barefoot dancers were shocking audiences, someone prophesied that the time would come when they would present Mother Eve on the stage. Well, that time is here. Maurice Tourneur has made the picture 'Woman,' in which Eve's antics in the Garden of Eden are just one episode in the story. But she sets the pace for what is to follow, and as Mrs. Leslie Carter used to say, 'The public isn't interested in good women.' Mr. Tourneur must have been of the same opinion, and they are really much more interesting to look at (in the films at least) in the days of Eve and her other daughters scattered over the centuries. 'The Photoplay 'Woman' may be a trifle naughty, but when you come to think of it, 'Venus' has been talked about by some of our best people and probably appeared to be a trifle skittish to her immediate neighbors. Maurice Tourneur is an artist and historian, not manufacturer of 'blinders.'"

A Truly Audacious Photoplay That You'll Remember!

A vivid, fearless and uncompromising portrayal of the evil that women do in all walks of life. A story bold and startling of the woman of temptation—the woman who lives in a riot of pleasure—the unfaithful woman, the fickle and discontented woman, who always longs for something different—the woman of personal purity who adroitly causes man to fall but escapes herself—the dangerous woman of vanity, and then the woman of noble and heroic character.

BOURBON BOY FRACTURES HIP.
The Leitchfield Gazette of a recent issue has the following regarding a mishap to a Bourbon county boy:
"Charles Henry, 34 years old, of Bourbon county, Ky., was found last Friday afternoon near the Salt River road in an unconscious condition.
He was brought to Leitchfield and placed in the care of a physician and is still under treatment, but is on the road to recovery. He suffered a fracture of the hip in the fall and was otherwise bruised."

KNEE DEEP IN SEED.
The big floors of the Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse, formerly covered with thousands of pounds of the "weed that soothes," and echoing to the voice of the auctioneer as he disposed of the weed at big prices, are now covered knee-deep with blue grass seed. The crop which is the property of a local concern, is undergoing the process of "curing." This has hitherto been accomplished in open pastures under direct rays of the sun.

K. OF P. MEMORIAL EXERCISES.
Sunday afternoon, June 29, has been selected as the date for the Knights of Pythias memorial exercises, in this city. The subordinate lodge and the Uniform Rank, together with visiting members from lodges of surrounding towns, will march in a body to the Paris Cemtery, where the graves of the Pythian dead will be decorated. It is expected that Hon. John J. Howe, of Carrollton, one of the most eloquent orators in the order, will be present and deliver the principal address.
Short addresses will be made by members of the local lodges. The program of exercises will be published in the local press at an early date.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC
The Presbyterian Sunday School will have an outing at Blue Grass Parks next Tuesday, June 24. A special interurban car has been chartered, which will leave the station immediately after the regular 2:15 p. m. car, and arrive at the Park about 3:45. Among the attractions offered are the Scenic Railway, Carousel and Swimming Pool. Mr.
Bush, of the Traction Company, will be in charge, and several expert swimmers will go along. These, together with the teachers and parents, will make sure the safety and comfort of the young people.
Lunch will be furnished by the Committee, will be served about six o'clock and the return trip made about 8:30. An afternoon of wholesome sport and pleasure will be enjoyed by all. Every member is requested to be present at Sunday School Sunday morning and register for the trip, including those who prefer to go in automobiles, so that additional transportation can be arranged for if necessary. It is very important that this be complied with.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Comings and Goings of Our People Here, There and Elsewhere.

—Miss Jessie May Fee has returned from a visit to friends in Lexington.

—Miss Elizabeth Taylor, of Louisville, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. N.
Teeger, in this city.

—Mrs. Ed. T. Hinton is at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. A. J. Vance, who is ill in a Cincinnati hospital.

—Mr. John Rankin, of near North Middletown, who was brought to the Massie Memorial Hospital some time ago with a broken leg, is recovering.

—Mrs. Georgia Spears and daughter, Mrs. Wm. Hinton, have as guest Mrs. Edwin H. Wickliffe, Sr., of Lexington.

—Marion Fithian Gilkey, young son of Dr. J. A. Gilkey, who was operated on at the Massie Memorial Hospital, in this city, a few days ago, has returned to his home.

—Mrs. John Taylor, of Shawhan, who recently underwent a surgical operation at the Massie Memorial Hospital, in this city, is recovering and will soon be able to return to her home.

—Clifton Hughes, the fifteen-year-old son of Mr. Hiram Hughes, who recently underwent an operation at the Massie Memorial Hospital, in this city, for appendicitis, was able to return home Tuesday.

—Miss Rebecca Purnell will leave to-day for Ford, Ky., where she will join the members of a house party to be entertained by Miss Nell Bush, of Winchester, at a summer camp on the Kentucky river.

—Miss Jamie Marsh is very ill at the home of her parents, in East
Paris, threatened with fever. Mr.
Marsh, who suffered a slight stroke of paralysis recently, was reported yesterday as improving.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Sauer and children left Tuesday for a Western trip. They will visit relatives in Jefferson City, Mo., for several weeks, continuing their trip to California,
where they will spend some time.

—Mr. and Mrs. Norman L. Sampson, "newly-weds," have returned from their bridal trip, and are temporarily residing with Mrs. Kate Clarke, at the corner of Main and Thirteenth streets.

—Miss Vallette McClintock entertained a number of friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
party. At the conclusion of the dance delightful refreshments were served.

—Maj. N. Winn Lisle, who has been in Paris several days as a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C.
Lisle, has gone to Camp Meade to make preparations for going to France for overseas duty in the army service.

—Miss Elizabeth Crutcher underwent an operation at the Massie Memorial Hospital for removal of tonsils.
She was able to be removed to her home on Stoner avenue yesterday, where she was reported as resting comfortably.

—Miss Carolyn Roseberry has returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs.
Owsley Brown, in Louisville. She was the guest of honor during her visit in Louisville at a number of informal social functions, one of the most enjoyable being the one given by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reid at the River Valley Club.

—Mr. Rayburn Rice, of Roswell,
New Mexico, is a guest of his brother, Mr. Alex T. Rice, and Mrs. Rice and family, on Mt. Airy avenue. Mr.
Rice made the two-thousand mile trip overland in his automobile, taking life easy on the way, making stops just where it suited him, and making the trip a vacation very much to be enjoyed.

—Mrs. William Griffith, Miss Nancy Griffith, Mrs. Woodford Daniel, Mrs. Catherine Davis Craig and Mrs. Edward Prichard attended the wedding of Miss Marguerite Morris and Mr. Carroll Adams, which took place in Lexington, Tuesday morning at the Methodist church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
John C. Morris, former residents of Paris.

—Beautifully engraved invitations, worded as follows, have been received in this city and county by friends and relatives of the groom-to-be, who is one of the most popular young men in the county:

"Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Strode request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Martha Frances, to Mr. Clay Sutherland, on Wednesday afternoon, June twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred and nineteen, at five o'clock, Winchester, Kentucky, First Baptist Church."

—Miss Frances Hancock left Wednesday morning for Columbus, Ohio, to attend the opening exercises of the great Methodist Centenary celebration on June 20, which will continue to July 13. A number of others are planning to attend the celebration.
THE NEWS acknowledges receipt of an invitation and extension of complimentary privileges to the event, but regret that a press of business engagements will prevent us from accepting and attending.

—Miss Louie Bruer was hostess at her home in this city with a dinner party in honor of five charter members of the Girls' Missionary Society of the Methodist church, which was organized here about six years ago under her auspices. The dinner guests were Mrs. Howard B. Carr, Mrs. Edward Payne and Misses Sara
Power, Frances Hancock and Ina Maddox. The menu was prepared and served under Miss Bruer's personal supervision, and the evening was thoroughly enjoyed by the guests.

—Mrs. John McGinley attended the commencement exercises of St.
Catherine's Academy, in Lexington,
Tuesday. The address to the graduating class was delivered by Bishop Ferdinand Brossart, of Covington, his subject being "The Advantages of a Christian Education." All the priests of the city and a number from surrounding towns were present for the exercises. Miss Margaret Doyle, of this city, was a member of the class, receiving a diploma for completion of the course. Miss Doyle read an essay on "Liberty."

Chicago, are guests of Mrs. W. H.
Anderson. Mrs. Endriss was formerly Miss Josephine Alexander, a member of the Paris High School faculty.

—Motor trips of society people to the Boonesboro bathing beach are the order of the day. The delightful trips, coming and returning, and the bathing in the river, make up an agreeable program.

—Mrs. Ray Taylor, of Paris, was one of the guests at a "summer card party" given in Georgetown by Mrs.
Reuben Ford Offutt and Mrs. William Kenney Ferguson, Wednesday.

The affair was given in honor of Miss Louise Lyons, of Steubenville, Ohio, guest of Miss Cornelia Blackburn.
Mrs. Robert Ferguson, another Bourbon county guest, captured the second prize, a box of hand-embroidered handkerchiefs.

—Mr. Wm. Grannan was host Wednesday evening at his residence at the corner of Main and Tenth streets at a six-o'clock dinner to Rev.
Father James Cusick, of Ashland, his nephew, Mr. Leo B. Casey, of Huntington, West Virginia, and Dr. W. B.
Montgomery, of Wheeling, West Virginia. During the evening a large number of friends called to pay their respects to Father Cusick, who was formerly in charge of the Church of the Annunciation, in this city.

—J. Stuart Wallingford and C.
Lenden Templin, of Paris, who graduated in the College of Mechanical Engineering at the University of Kentucky this week, are home to remain a short time. Mr. Wallingford will go to Clintonville, Wis., where he will take an important position with a large automobile manufacturing concern. Mr. Lenden Templin will go to Philadelphia about July 1, where he will be assistant in the office of the consulting engineer of a large producing firm.

THE WEATHER.
The following is the weather forecast for Kentucky for the remainder of this week, as sent out from the Weather Bureau at Washington:
Thunderstorms in the northern portions of the State, generally fair in Southern portions.

The weather in this vicinity for the past week or ten days has been all that the most ardent "hot-weatherfan" could desire. High temperature, the mercury ranging as high as 100 degrees in the shade, have prevailed, and heavy rains and thunderstorms accompanied by electrical exhibits, have occurred almost daily.
No hope of relief is held out by the Weather Bureau, as the hot wave appears to be enveloping the entire country.

FROM CHERRY-BLOSSOM LAND

The Japanese Give Good Example

It is a proverb of Cherry Blossom Land that beauty of face and figure depend on womanly health.

What is it that makes our American women often pale, with dark circles under the eyes, and very often old at forty-five when they should be in their prime?

Women suffer from backache, spine-ache and headaches, followed by irregularities and as a result diseases of the womanly organs are more common than any one but a physician in active practice could suppose.

After long experience in the treatment of women's diseases, Dr. Pierce evolved a vegetable tonic and corrective which he called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This is a purely vegetable preparation, without a particle of alcohol contained in it.

When a woman complains of backache, dizziness or pain—when everything looks black before her eyes—a dragging feeling, or bearing-down, with nervousness, she should turn to this "temperance" herbal tonic. It can be obtained in almost every drug store in the land and the ingredients are printed in plain English on the wrapper. Put up in tablets or liquid. Dr. Pierce, of Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., will send a trial size of the tablets for ten cents.

Everybody Laugh!

The girl who laughs because she is sunny-hearted, and finds things to enjoy as she goes along, adds enjoyment to others as they go along. There is something in a smile that calls out a smile, and spontaneous laughter is the most catching thing in the world. No one who hears a joyous laugh is likely to scowl in response.

As a general thing, no shirt is pretty enough to justify its visibility through the slit in a pinback coat.

THE TAX LAWS

Chief Justice Carroll's Proposed Amendment—An Increase in Revenue and No Increase in Taxes

Chief Justice John D. Carroll's plan of taxation is to exempt lands and town lots from all state taxes. Counties will not be required to assume any obligation now taken care of by the state. The state will have as much or more money as it now has and will use it for the same purpose that it is now used.

$3,500,000 will be taken off of real estate and $4,500,000 will be collected annually by the state in the place of it from other sources, as follows:

1. Franchise tax-paying corporations, banks and trust companies, will pay all taxes except for graded schools and municipalities to the state, but the total taxes paid on this property shall be not more than is now paid. The additional revenue from this source will be not less than $2,000,000.
2. All intangible personal property will be assessed. Not less than $1,000,000 additional will be collected from this source.
3. The state will save more than $300,000 which is now paid for assessing and collecting taxes on real estate.
4. An adequate system for collecting inheritance taxes will enable the state to collect not less than $400,000 additional.
5. By a revision of the license tax laws, more than $300,000 additional can be collected.
6. Elimination of useless expenses for salaries and other purposes will save the state not less than $500,000.

AMERICANS AND GREASERS CLASH IN MEXICO.

EL PASO, TEXAS, June 19.—American troops who participated in the punitive expedition against the Villa rebels in and near Juarez Sunday night and Monday were billeted Monday night in barracks and camps on the American side after 24 hours of campaigning.

Seven ragged Mexican prisoners were headed toward Ft. Bliss by a detachment of the Fifth Cavalry, while another cavalry detachment drove a herd of 100 captured Mexican horses and ponies to the remount station.

It was stated unofficially Monday night at Ft. Bliss that approximately 50 Villa followers were killed.

One American of the Seventh Cavalry, Corporal Chigas, was shot through the lung by a Mexican rebel.

After crossing during Sunday night the cavalry column, supported by a battalion of the Eighty-second Artillery, advanced and at daybreak began a scouting tour.

Capturing the seven prisoners before reaching the Villa camp, the cavalry was enabled to proceed, dismounted, to a short distance of the adobe headquarters, when fighting was begun by the Americans standing in water up to their knees.

Four Villa men were killed in the first assault and the entire force, numbering approximately 200 men, mounted and escaped toward the southwest, with the cavalry troops in pursuit.

The rebel scattered into small bands, the Fifth Cavalry pursuing one band 35 miles.

In the meantime the Seventh Cavalry deployed to the southeast and pursued another band. Troops A and C executed a mounted pistol charge from the saddle and killed a number of the rebels. The artillery placed shrapnel directly over the heads of the fleeing Villa force and many were killed.

After the pursuit the two cavalry forces formed a junction and returned to the American side of the river, accompanied by the artillery and Eighth Engineers.

The seven Mexican prisoners professed to be either farmers in the valley or Carranza soldiers, none admitting having been with Villa.

Only the cavalry was engaged with the rebels at noon, the artillery firing in the vicinity of San Lorenzo having ceased.

Orders issued at the district headquarters for the operation of American troops in Mexico read as follows:

"In the absence of any important reasons to the contrary you will withdraw your entire command and recross the border to the United States at noon."

This is not considered an order for the recall of the pursuing cavalry, but indicated the strong desire of the military authorities to withdraw as soon as the objective, which was the dispersing of the Villa bands and the stopping of firing in the United States, had been accomplished.

American troops sent into Mexico to stop the indiscriminate firing across the border fought their first general engagement with the Mexican rebel forces of Francisco Villa at the Juarez race track shortly after 6 o'clock Monday morning and the Americans were victorious.

Villa's troops were driven from the race track by rifle and machine gun fire, and many prisoners were reported taken by the United States cavalry, which took up positions on the east and southeast of the track, according to an official report at military headquarters.

The Mexican rebels and Federal troops fought in the streets of Juarez Saturday night and Sunday night, many on both sides being killed. Many bullets from the rebel guns came across the Rio Grande, and two persons were killed and seven wounded on the American side.

When the Mexican bullets became too thick for the safety of citizens of El Paso, Brigadier General J. B. Erwin ordered American troops to cross the border, and in 10 minutes after the order was issued 3,600 United States soldiers were in Mexico.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—There can be no misunderstanding between the governments of the United States and Mexico, regarding the movement of troops across the border at El Paso Secretary Baker said Monday. The sole purpose, he said, was protection of the American side of the border, and there is a distinct understanding between the governments for such action.

CATARRAL DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

By local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of Catarrh Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Drug-gists, 75c.

SECRETARY GLASS ISSUES "THRIFT SUNDAY" PROCLAMATION

When real service for the upbuilding and betterment of the nation and community is needed, we naturally look to the churches of the country for their loyal assistance and co-operation. During the war they held true to their faith and justified the confidence that all those in authority placed in them as being instruments upon which they could rely for the co-operation and assistance in all the activities of the government necessary to the successful prosecution of a just and righteous war.

The peace-time needs of the nation and the community are as great, and should be as inspiring to the churches, as are the war-time needs. Many of the things that we do under the pressure of war are equally necessary and valuable in times of peace, but it sometimes happens that it needs the shock and force of a war to bring these to our attention.

In no case is this more true than in that of saving and thrift. Under the strain and menace of war we were obliged to practice thrift and economy. We did it for the sake of the country without thought of personal gain or personal interest. In this the churches stood solidly behind the government and rendered untold assistance. While helping the government meet its needs we were learning much that we should know and practice during the period of readjustment and peace-time development following the happy conclusions of the war.

The Treasury Department pledges its full aid in making the habits of real thrift, thoughtful and intelligent use of money, and activities of the American people. With idea of promoting this habit among the people and affording them an opportunity to invest their savings safely and carefully and at the same time, by so investing them, to obtain an increased participation in the government and take a more intelligent interest in our government and its activities, the Treasury Department is continuing the Savings Campaign, and the sale of Savings and Thrift Stamps. We hope that we can rely on the pastors and members of all the churches of this country to support the government in the activity which will mean better citizens, better communities, and a better country.

DANGEROUS DISEASE

No organs of the human body are so important to health and long life as the kidneys. When they slow up and commence to lag in their duties, look out! Find out what the trouble is—without delay. Whenever you feel nervous, weak, dizzy, suffer from sleeplessness, or have pains in the back—wake up at once. Your kidneys need help. These are signs to warn you that your kidneys are not performing their functions properly. They are only half doing their work and are allowing impurities to accumulate and be converted into uric acid and other poisons, which are causing you distress and will destroy you unless they are driven from your system.

OHIO GENERAL ASSEMBLY RATIFIES SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT.

COLUMBUS, O., June 19.—The Ohio General Assembly Monday ratified the federal woman suffrage amendment and immediately thereafter passed a bill that will give Ohio women the right to vote for Presidential electors in 1920 should the federal amendment not be in effect at that time. The vote on ratification was 73 for to 6 against in the House and in the Senate 27 for to 3 against.

In transmitting the proposed suffrage amendment to the Legislature Governor James M. Cox urged ratification and gave three special reasons why woman should be granted equal suffrage with men. They were:

"First—What is offered now to our women was their right long ago. "Second—Bestowal of the right of suffrage will be regarded as part recognition for service and sacrifice during the war. "Third—The nation and the world need the expressed mother voice as an element of safety when evils lie about."

Only a fair representation of women, chiefly suffrage leaders, were present in the galleries when the vote on the federal resolution and the State suffrage bill were taken. They were given permission to cheer in the House by Speaker Kimball, and this they did with considerable enthusiasm.

TO PREVENT BELCHING

Make a regular habit of eating slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, and you may have no further trouble. If you should, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper.

GERMANS RECEIVE THE FINAL PEACE CONDITIONS.

PARIS, June 19.—The final reply of the Allied and Associated Powers to the conditions of peace handed to the Germans at Versailles May 7 was delivered to the German delegation Monday and made public shortly afterward.

The Germans are allowed seven days to accept or refuse the treaty as it stands.

If they accept, peace will be signed at once; if they do not accept the armistice will terminate on Monday, June 23, before 6 p. m., and the Powers will take such steps as may be necessary to enforce their terms.

The principles of the original conditions have been upheld vigorously as establishing a peace of justice, but certain modifications in detail and many explanations of the effect of execution are made.

The reply is in two parts—a general covering letter and seriatim discussions of the general counter-proposals.

The changes include: A plebiscite for Upper Silesia, with guarantee of coal from the territory. Frontier rectification in West Prussia.

Omission increase of the German army from 100,000 to 200,000 men. Declaration of the intention to submit within a month of signature a list of those accused of having violated the laws and customs of war.

Offer to co-operate with a German commission on reparations, and to receive suggestions for discharging the obligation.

Certain detailed modifications in the finance, economic and ports and waterways clauses, including abolition of the proposed Kiel Canal Commission.

Assurance of membership in the League of Nations in the early future if Germany fulfills her obligations.

The omission of a provision for an allied civilian commission to control the administration on the left bank of the Rhine from the revised treaty, it is explained, was due to the fact that this is considered as a supplementary convention between Germany and the allied and associated Powers. It was not necessary, therefore, to include it in the treaty.

The covering letter is from M. Clemenceau, President of the peace conference, to Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, President of the German delegation.

CHRONIC CONSTIPATION

Perhaps you have never thought of it, but this disorder is due to a lack of moisture in the residual of the food. If you will drink an abundance of water, eat raw fruits and take lots of outdoor exercises, you may be able eventually to overcome it entirely. In the meantime use the most mild and gentle laxatives. Strong and harsh cathartics take too much water out of the system and make a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are easy and pleasant to take, and most agreeable in effect. Give them a trial.

HOW THEY DO THE WORK IN WASHINGTON.

The capacity and capabilities of the government printing office at Washington was demonstrated the other night when the so-called German peace treaty of one hundred thousand words, was put in type in two hours. As soon as the copy was delivered to the superintendent it was cut into 48 "takes" and 48 machine operators got busy. The task was taken as a matter of course and was done by the regular night force. The matter took up 64 pages of the Congressional Record, 35,000 copies of which were printed. It also is to be printed in circular form and be generally distributed. As the document is not authentic and if it were a real copy it would be subject to changes and its costly publication is not only a breach of faith and an effort to snub Wilson, but playing into the hands of the Germans. President Wilson had asked the Senate not to consider the document till he presented an authorized copy and the premature publication of a purloined copy is sure to widen the breach between the Senate and him.

THE DOCTOR AWAY FROM HOME WHEN MOST NEEDED

People are often very much disappointed to find that their physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like pain in the stomach are bowels, colic and diarrhoea require prompt treatment and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life.

THE WISE DEACON.

The short-haired woman and long-haired men in Nodway county, Mo., have taken up the Demon Tobacco as the next victim of prohibition. One of the sisters approached Elder Johnson, a pillar of the church, and asked his support in the fight against tobacco. And this was Elder Johnson's reply, as printed in the Nodway County Democrat-Forum:

"A man can smoke and still be a good Christian. Universal smoking would do more toward bringing about universal brotherhood of man and the Fatherhood of God era on earth than all the spasms of short-haired women and long-haired men reformers in the world. Do I believe in smoking? Most assuredly! Let us pray!"

Porto Rican children, members of the Junior Red Cross, have gathered "huano," a vegetable material, for pillows, to be used locally for the benefit of their soldiers. The Red Cross has discovered many useful materials hitherto unused.

A big new discovery in cigarette blending

The big thing about Chesterfields is their unique blend. The Chesterfield blend is an entirely new combination of tobaccos. It is a most important development in cigarette making.

As a result, Chesterfields deliver a new kind of cigarette enjoyment — just like a "bite" before bedtime when you're hungry — they SATISFY!

It took the finest selections of TURKISH and DOMESTIC tobaccos and no end of skill and patient experiment to get this blend right.

Was it worth it? Say — just smoke a Chesterfield fresh from the moisture-proof package. You'll say it was worth it, all right!

KENTUCKY GIANT IS A VERY HAPPY MAN.

One of the proudest and happiest men in Kentucky is W. T. Pruitt, of Rockcastle county, aged sixty, who also believes he is the heaviest man in the State, as he weighs 512 pounds. It is not that he is so proud of his unusual weight, because, although it gives him somewhat of an advantage over his fellowmen in some ways, it is perhaps something of a handicap otherwise; but he rejoices in two children, a son and a daughter, and sixteen grandchildren, all of whom are residents of Rockcastle county. H. T. Prewitt, the son, has several boys and one girl, and the daughter, Mrs. Mary Wiggins, has seven girls and one son.

Some people flatter themselves that even their brains are taxed.

MATRIMONIAL.

—A marriage license was issued from the office of County Clerk Pearce Paton, Tuesday, to Miss Margaret Pence, of Lancaster, and Mr. Jennings B. Crump, of Millersburg.

NICHOLS—VICE.

—Mr. William Walter Vice, of Bath county, and Mrs. Edith Nichols, of Nicholas county, were married in the parlors of the Windsor Hotel, Wednesday, by Rev. G. S. Combs, pastor of the Paris Methodist church.

JACOBS—POWELL.

—Cupid keeps busy despite the weather. Hot or cold his darts keep piercing susceptible hearts. Andrew Powell and Miss Clara Jacobs, both of Lexington, are among his latest victims. They came to Paris, secured a marriage license from County Clerk Pearce Paton, and were married by County Judge Batterton in his private office in the court house.

BREWSTER—REMINGTON.

—Relatives in this city and county have received engraved cards announcing the wedding in Overland, Mo., of Mr. Edward Remington, formerly of Paris, now residing in East St. Louis, Ill.

Mr. Remington was married in Overland on Tuesday, June 17, to Miss Mabel Harriet Brewster, of that city. They will be at home after August 1, at Overland, Mo.

Mr. Remington is a brother of Mr. William Remington, editor of the Paris Democrat. Mr. Frank Remington and Mrs. Mayme Remington Parish, all of Paris; Mr. Frazier Remington, of California; Mrs. Alice Fisher, of Carlisle, and Mrs. William Howard, Sr., of Richmond.

He was for many years clerk in the shoe store of the late Mr. Thos. F. Roche, in Paris. Going West he became manager of the Douglas Shoe Co. Store, in St. Louis, which position he resigned to accept a conductorship in the Pullman Car service between St. Louis and Mexico City. He is now manager of the Douglas Shoe Co.'s store in East St. Louis, Ill.

He was one of the most popular Paris boys who ever emigrated West, and his popularity followed him. He is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Remington.

O'NEILL—WHITE.

—Miss Clara O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Neill, and Mr. M. Clark White, both former residents of Paris, will be married in Philadelphia, Saturday afternoon, June 28, in the Presbyterian church, at five o'clock.

The announcement is of great interest here, where both the prospective bride and groom resided many years. Miss O'Neill moved to Philadelphia last August with the other members of her family. She is a young woman of many lovely graces of character. She is a talented musician, and was for several years organist at the Paris Christian church.

Mr. White was instructor in mathematics in the Paris High School for several terms, resigning his position to answer his country's call to the colors at the beginning of the great world war. Since the close of the war he has been engaged in Y. M. C. A. work in New York City. At present he is one of the secretaries of Mrs. Vincent Astor's Y. M. C. A. work in New York, at Battery Park.

He is a young man of sterling qualities and very popular here. Prof. Clark formerly resided in Mexico, Mo. He is a graduate of Transylvania University, at Lexington.

Following the ceremony, which will be performed in the presence of only the immediate relatives and intimate friends the couple will go to New York to reside. They will be at home to their friends at No. 106 West 74th Street.

The prospective bride and groom have the best wishes and advance congratulations of a host of friends in their former home.

MOORE—ADAMS.

—The marriage of Miss Marguerite Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Caleb Morris, formerly of Paris, to Mr. Carroll Sidney Adams, of Beaufort, S. C., was solemnized Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock at the First Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Lexington. Dr. G. E. Cameron was the officiating minister.

The altar was decorated with palms, ferns and white daisies. Before the ceremony Miss Emma Willis Row sang "At Dawning" and "O, Promise Me." Mrs. Cullis, at the organ, rendered a pleasing musical program.

The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Mr. J. C. Morris, Jr., who gave her in marriage, the groom entering with his best man, Mr. Charles Michler. The groomsmen came singly down the side aisles and formed a circle at the altar. They were Mr. R. B. Finley, Louisville; David Dudley, Earlington; Chester Jewett, Cynthiaana, and Prof. N. R. Elliott, of Lexington.

The bride was preceded to the altar by little Miss Dorothy Nichols, the flower girl, who was daintily dressed in white organdie with pink sashes and hair ribbon. Her flower basket was filled with white daisies.

The bride's costume was of midnight blue, her corsage of pink sweet peas and blue delphiniums.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams left immediately after the ceremony for a trip to Columbus, Chattanooga and Atlanta. They will be at home after July 1, at Beaufort, South Carolina. Those from a distance to attend the wedding were the bride's mother, Mrs. J. C. Morris, and sister, Mrs. James G. Roney, of Marshall, Texas; Mr. J. C. Morris was unable to be present.

NEGROES ENGAGE IN A CUTTING SCRAPE.

Two negroes, Will Graves and Chas. Jett, members of a crew of men engaged in stripping bluegrass seed for Mr. E. J. Burris, on the Clay farm, near Paris, became involved in an argument Wednesday. Graves slashed Jett with a knife, cutting the muscles of the right arm to the bone and almost serving his right hand. Graves fled through the fields and caught an outgoing interurban car to Lexington, where he was intercepted and placed under arrest, upon telephonic information from Patrolman Robert Lusk to Chief of Police Reagan. Jett was rushed to the Massie Memorial Hospital, where his injuries were given attention.

Patrolman Lusk went to Lexington and brought Graves to Paris. He was given a hearing yesterday before Judge George Batterton, in the County Court, on a charge of malicious cutting and wounding, and assessed a fine of $50 and costs and given thirty days in jail at hard labor.

CUT THOSE WEEDS!

Is that weed patch yours? Cut them down. The city is just as responsible as a private owner, and should not overlook an opportunity to set an example for others to follow. Some vegetable matter may be pretty and pleasing to the eye, and yet be a menace to the health of the community.

The Board of Health will enforce the ordinance regarding the cutting of weeds in the city. They must be cut within five days from date of this notice.

PRESIDENT TO MAKE FIRST SPEECH IN CINCINNATI

President Wilson will deliver his first speech at Cincinnati on his tour to arouse the country to the support of the League of Nations.

It was learned definitely that Cincinnati has been selected as the place for the opening speech instead of St. Louis, as reported in many of the press dispatches. From Cincinnati the President will go to Indianapolis, where he will speak on the day following his Cincinnati engagement.

The itinerary, of course, is subject to approval of the President, but there is no reason to believe he will change the arrangements in any respect.

NEW ELECTRIC LINE SOON TO BE CONSTRUCTED.

Plans for the new Shelbyville-Frankfort interurban electric line that will form the connecting link in the electric line from Louisville to Lexington are now being prepared by a New York construction firm. The contract between the Frankfort & Shelbyville Electric Railway Company, owner and operators of the new line, calls for the work of construction to start before the contract price is paid.

Building of the new electric line has already been indorsed along general lines and plans for its financing are now under way. The estimated cost of the road is $400,000.

WHEAT HARVEST PROBLEM.

Harvesting a two hundred million bushel wheat crop is a serious problem which Kansas faces to be accomplished within a few weeks. Wheat cutting cannot be put off. State Farm Labor Director Frizell, of Larned, calls for 220,000 men to harvest the crop, more than half this immense army of workers to be brought in from other States. There are still in the army, unavailable for harvest hands, more than twice as many men as a year ago, and Kansas is therefore short-handed to an extent that it has never been before.

With high wages in other occupations it is not easy to induce men to come into the wheat harvest. The pay is good enough, but the job does not attract men who have permanent employment. For harvest hands Kansas must rely largely on former men in the S. A. T. C.

"If the wheat isn't harvested as soon as it is ripe, it is lost," Mr. Frizell told Kansas City last week. "We can put off our corn, our hay and our alfalfa, but we can't put off wheat. The crop this year is going to be worth $475,000,000."

It is worth a supreme effort to save the whole of it.

BUYS BLUEGRASS HORSE.

Dr. Lee T. Cooper, formerly of Paris, and now residing in Dayton, Ohio, where he is one of the proprietors of the "Tanlac" remedy, recently purchased of Giles Bros., of Scott county, a good bay gelding by Dandy Jim, out of a daughter of Star McDonald. The horse was educated by Kenney McAllister, of Georgetown, who made the sale.

CHURCHES TO OBSERVE "THRIFT" SUNDAY, JUNE 22.

Thrift Sunday is to be observed throughout the country on June 22. On this date every minister in Kentucky will be asked to deliver their Sunday sermon on "Thrift" and to read the message of Secretary of the Treasury Carter Glass to their people on War Savings and Thrift.

The project has been launched by the Savings Division, War Loan Organization of the Treasury Department, which has started a nationwide movement to conserve the war-taught habits of thrift, which has met with the hearty approval from many interests and organizations.

Every man, woman and child in the United States will be asked to consider and discuss on Thrift Sunday the present necessity for economy and its permanent value to personal community and national prosperity.

"Thrift and savings are the highways to freedom," says State Director James B. Brown. "That safe and profitable investment may be within reach of everyone the Treasury Department is continuing the sale of Thrift and War Savings Stamps. The latter costing a little over four percent, compounded quarterly is one of the very best rates for savings," declares Mr. Brown.

"War Savings Stamps are made easy to acquire. Thrift Stamps cost but a quarter each and sixteen of these plus a few cents additional may be exchanged for an interest bearing War Savings Stamp."

The slogan of the Savings Division is "Save First, Spend Afterwards." "We hope to have every minister in Kentucky preach on thrift on June 22, on the meaning and value of intelligent thrift to his congregation and suggest plans for community and individual thrift in addition to encouraging church organizations to enroll as government savings societies," said the State Director.

MAYSVILLE DOCKS ARE REMOVED TO CONCORD.

The C. & O. coal docks, which cost the company about $50,000 several years ago, situated just at the eastern outskirts of Maysville, have been transferred to Concord, fifteen miles above.

Several months ago the docks were burned, and the company decided to rebuild at a more convenient place.

The change causes a loss of more than $2,000 per month in salaries to Maysville.

CUTWORMS DESTROY 24 ACRES OF GRAIN IN 2 HOURS.

Twenty acres of rye and four acres of corn on the Bernig Phillips farm just across the Ohio State line, near Richmond, Ind., were destroyed by army worms in less than two hours.

Persons from all over Ohio and Eastern Indiana were coming to the place to see the destruction. Trenches were dug around the fields immediately and when the worms started to leave the fields they encountered the trenches and seemed content to lie in the bottom of these. The worms were about an inch long and of a caterpillar in some respects.

The river is again open for bargain sales.
